P. 12 : Gabriel Whiteduck and his mother Mary Whiteduck lived for years in Matawatchan/ Griffith Ontario. Gabriel had two half brothers - Louis Mitchell, son of Mary Whiteduck and Louis Mitchell, Sr., and Joseph McLaren son of Mary Whiteduck and (according to Irene) Joseph McLaren, Sr. Mary Whiteduck was the sister of Joseph Whiteduck of Ardoch and that is where Mary was buried.

P. 21 : 1871 census, Clarendon and Miller Townships, Addington County, District 64, sub-district o, pp. 14-15, reel C9998. This showed the family of Joh (Joseph) Whiteduck and his wife Mary. Joh was listed as an Indian trapper, aged 38 and born in Quebec. His wife Mary was listed as being 36 years of age and born in Ontario. They had seven children living with them, as well as a widow named Mary Ann aged 30 years and her son Michael aged 6. (Note by Randy - This was Gabriel's mother, Mary Whiteduck, and half brother Louis Mitchell living with Joseph and family after Louis Mitchell Sr. was drowned.)

P. 21, 22 : Mary Whiteduck was born and lived her early life in Ardoch Ontario where she is buried. She met and married a fur trader from Holland I guess because my Dad said his father was Dutch. His first name I don't know but his last name was Mitchell which was my father's name. Of this marriage there was two children a girl Katie and my Dad, Louis Mitchell. Mary was expecting my Dad when her husband wanted to make a trip by canoe to Montreal to dispose of his furs. He took the little girl with him but left his wife Mary and my Dad who was just a small baby with her family someplace along the Madawaska River. Evidently Mary had some brothers. They waited for him to come back and then decided to go look for him and Katie. Some where along the river they found his body which was in bad shape in the water. He had been killed I guess for the money he had on him because he was evidently on his way home. They also found his canoe but no sign of the little girl. Maybe she was kidnapped. After some years Grandma remarried to a man called Joe McLaren. She had a son Joe McLaren who grew up and lived in Matawatchan about twelve miles from here. He was killed her husband Joe by a rollway of logs which crushed him. She was pregnant again about five months and when the baby was born she called him Gabe. When he was christened she went back to her maiden name and he was christened Gabe Whiteduck even if he was really McLaren and full brother to Joe. The brothers all grew up near Matawatchan. Joe married a Sarah McDonald from Matawatchan. Louis Mitchell (my Dad) married Louise Defaunt from Lake of Two Mountains and settled in Griffith. McLaren had four children, Mitchells had seven. Grandma Whiteduck and Gabe built a little house and settled in Matawatchan where she died. They took her body back to Ardoch to be buried. Gabe was left alone so he joined the army, First World War. He later married Mary Lemier from Chalk River and had two children Peter and Rita. Mary his wife had T.B.. Gabe moved to Matheson where he lived out his days. He used to come and visit Joe McLaren and my Dad quite often.

P. 23 : Mary died approximately around 1914. Mary and Gabriel lived in the Matawatchan area from 1880 to at least 1901.

P. 52 : « Gabriel [...] had served in the Canadian Expeditionary Force during WW1. He enlisted in Renfrew, Ontario, on 17 March 1916. He served in the 130th Battalion and then in France with the 107th Infantry Battalion and the 11th Canadian Engineers. On the Preliminary Information Form Gabriel [...] lists his nationality as French/Indian and is married to a 27 year old Indian woman named Mary Lamure for seven months.

P. 53: In Gabriel's letter of April 8, 1921, he states he was born in Matawatchan, Ontario, but never lived on a reserve. He says his nationality is Algonquin [...]. In Gabriel's letter of October 4, 1927, he makes several claims. [...] His parents were from the Lake of Two Mountains. He claims his mother was pure Indian and his father was half Indian and half French. He [...] says the band of Indians he belongs to is in the Maniwaki Algonquin reserve.

P. 56: Joseph McLaren of Matawatchan, Ontario (half-brother)

P. 74 : Griffith confirmed on 1907 - Mary age 61, sponsor Joseph Whiteduck. (Note by Randy - This was probably Mary Whiteduck, mother of Gabriel and the sponsor Joseph Whiteduck was probably her brother)
